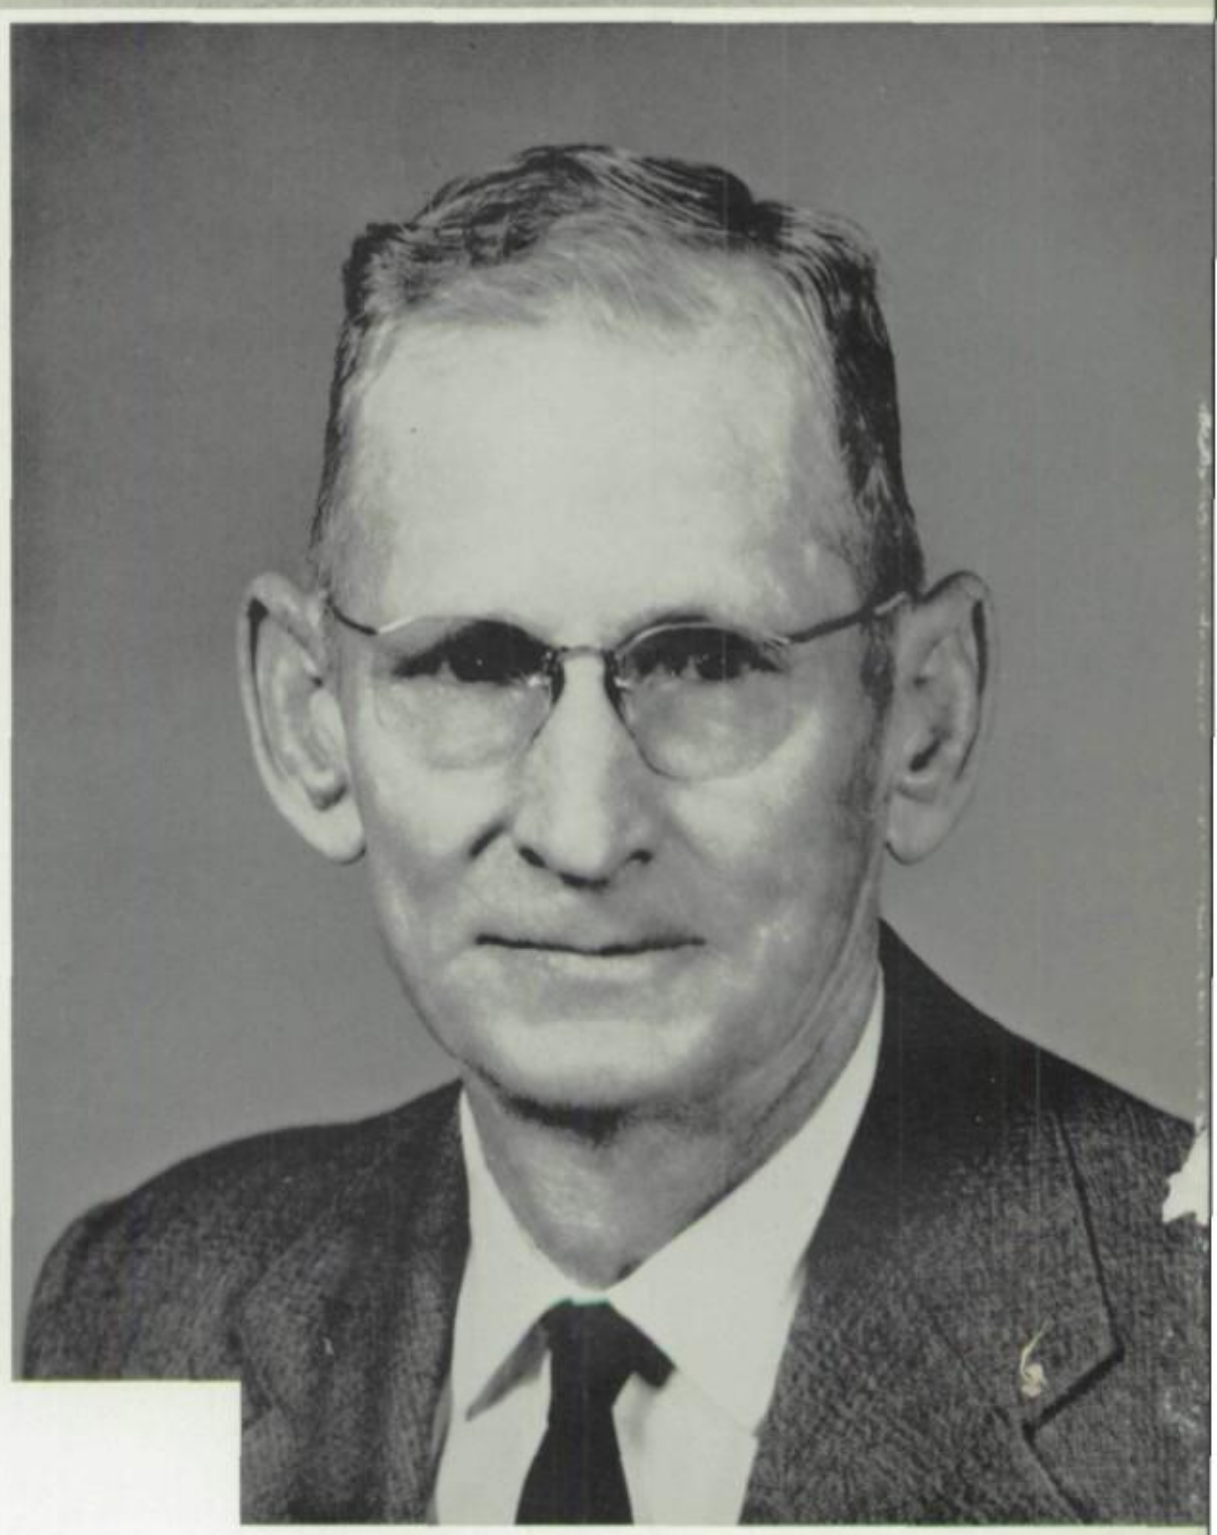
KEEPERS OF

As head custodian of Levelland High School since 1956, Mr. Jack Parmer is truly a "keeper of the keys." Besides keeping our buildings clean and attractive, Mr. Parmer is always willing to help move chairs and tables for such activities as the English Festival, Career Day, banquets, the Sweetheart banquet, Commencement Exercises and for many other functions.

Perhaps the main reason Mr. Parmer merits the dedication of this yearbook is his sincere concern for everyone. He cooperates with the faculty and is interested in the problems and joys of the students.

Mr. Parmer, this is our way of giving you a sincere "Thank You."

THE KEYS



Mr. E. L. Oliver, custodian of the athletic department, has been in close association with the athletes of L.H.S. since coming here from Cotton Center in September, 1958.

By being diligent in his time and effort, Mr. Oliver has become a fixed part of our athletic program. Durng his six years here, the athletes have come to think of Mr. Oliver as a close friend for whom there is never-ending respect.

Mr. Oliver not only helps the athletes with the problems they encounter, but he also helps to raise their spirits and desires by recalling past instances of thrilling games, close scores, memorable incidents, and scholarship offers.

We show our appreciation to Mr. Oliver by dedicating the 1964 El Lobo to him.

OUR TRIBUTE TO A GREAT MAN

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

May 29, 1917 November 22, 1963

1:30 P.M., November 22, 1963

Our late President, John F. Kennedy, gave us the Master Key to a superior and greater way of living. He was a symbol of America, believing in a government, a purpose, and a way of life where things can be improved.

President Kennedy gave us the key to success by believing in hard work and loving our work; the key to unselfishness by being filled with pride by the accomplishments of others and what we can do for others; the key to believe in ourselves, to build greatly, to have a great goal to believe in and create the means to reach it.

President Kennedy gave us a key, as youthful Americans, to live a dignified, useful, and dedicated life and to be an inspiration for others. His philosophy of life and equality of rights gave us a key to better understanding of all races and to shut out hatred and bitterness.

President Kennedy said, "This is a dangerous and uncertain world . . . no one expects our lives to be easy--not in this decade, not in this century"; but he gave us the key to face problems as they arise, to strive for solutions, and to begin anew. The master key he gave us will definitely open, to all, a better way of life.

FOREWORD

The EL LOBO staff presents the 1963-64 yearbook to you the student body.

The key on the cover is yours. We sincerely hope it will unlock the treasure chest to the many warm and exciting memories this past year has held.

As you look at each page in this annual, we hope you will recall the excitement of the ball games and pep rallies . . . The routine of the classes and the teachers we respect . . . The beauty and fun of the dances and Prom . . . Then with thrilling anticipation the Seniors' baccalaureate and commencement.

Just as we have used this key to unlock the treasures in this book, we hope the student body will use the Golden Key of opportunity to make a success of their lives.

LEARNING

KENNETH M. LAYCOCK

Superintendent of Public Schools

Superintendent Kenneth M. Laycock was born in Collinsworth County in the Texas Panhandle. His two degrees, B. S. and M. Ed., are from West Texas State University. He has the distinction of having had three types of professional experience in Shamrock, Texas. He began his teaching career there as a high school history teacher, receiving a promotion to the position of high school principal, and later to the superintendency of the Shamrock schools. He is a member of numerous professional organizations as well as having been the recipient of many professional honors. The two years prior to his coming to Levelland were spent at the University of Texas where he was officially admitted to candidacy and completed all course requirements for a Doctor of Education degree. At the University of Texas he was Lecturer in the College of Education and later was Research Assistant in the Department of Educational Administration. At present he is writing his dissertation of fulfillment of the requirement for the coveted Ed. D. Degree.

STUDENT COUNCIL '63-'64

Voting members of the Student Council are composed of homeroom representatives. Shown from left to right are: Ralph Solis, Butch Kauffman, George Keeling, Gary Reed, Robby Timberlake, Keith Bell, Troy Abell, Isdiro Hernandez, Don Fisher, Tommy Stracener, Hugh Forehand, Vic Hines, Jim Balch, Monte Mapp, Pete Swain. Seated are: Jackie Bennet, Jo Beth Parks, Linda McMillian, Connie Rogers, Gerry Geistman, Ronnie Davidson, and Lynn Waters.

Honorary members of the S. C. are club presidents, head cheerleader, captains of various athletic teams. These members exercise all privileges except that of voting. Pictured standing from left to right are: Mike Roberson, Buddy Kelsay, Clifton Smith, Jerry Schultz, Max Slaughter, Wayne Burton, Don Payne, Tommy Goode, Dennis McWatters. Seated are: Kathy Evans, Sandra Dalton, Cathy Stacy, Patsey Raymond, and Jayellen Harbin.

Band Director

The Levelland High School Band won the coveted "sweep stakes" award for the third consecutive time in 1964. This came about by winning a 1st division rating in concert, sight-reading and marching. The marching contest was held at Texas Tech and the other events were held here in Levelland on April 3rd and 4th. Our band and school was host to more than 3, 000 band students from this part of Texas. The band performed at 10 football games, was the guest of West Texas State University to put on a halftime show at the WT-Arizona U. football game.

The Student Council chose to honor the '63-'64 Club Sweethearts in a novel way by presenting them in an assembly program February 14. As each personality approached the stage, Earl Taylor, Student Council President, gave the Achievements, projects and a brief historical sketch of each organization. Following this activity, escorts presented corsages and a brief kiss to their club's sweetheart.

CAMPUS HONORS RETIRING TEACHER

Miss McCorkle opens one of the many gifts that were given to her at a dinner party given in her honor.

Mr. Reed reads one of the many letters of recognition that were sent to Miss McCorkle from friends and former students.

The high school faculty honored Miss Thora McCorkle with a dinner party May 8, 1964. Miss McCorkle retired after thirty-six years in the Levelland Public School System. The Ex-Students Association presented her with flowers and a silver tray, and from the faculty she received Irish cut-work table linen. Her present students gave her a scrapbook and a gold bracelet and charm. As emcee Mr. W. L. Reed read telegrams from ex-students and dignitaries who included President Johnson, Congressman and Mrs. George Mahon, and Commissioner of Education, Dr. C. W. Edgar.

Miss McCorkle reminisces over past experiences at the '64 Senior class banquet.

ACTIVITIES

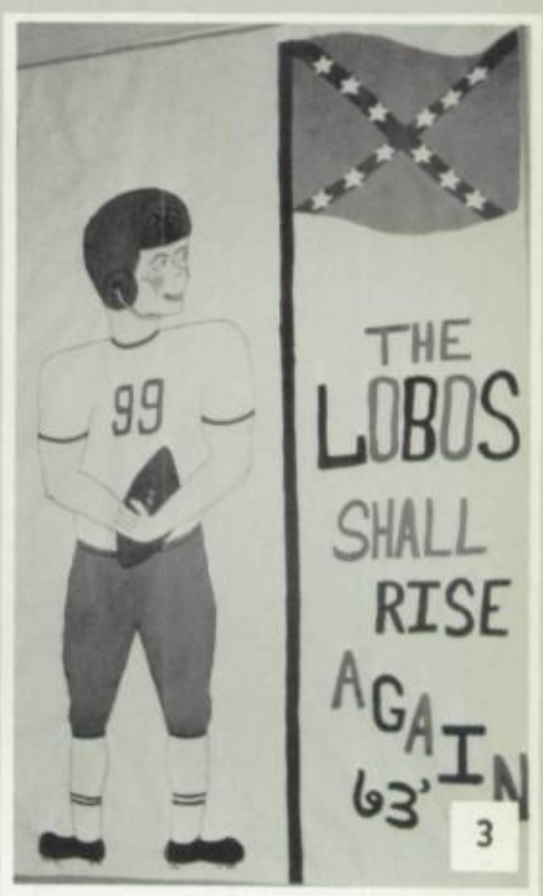
KEY TO SCHOOL SPIRIT

IT ALL BEGINS AGAIN

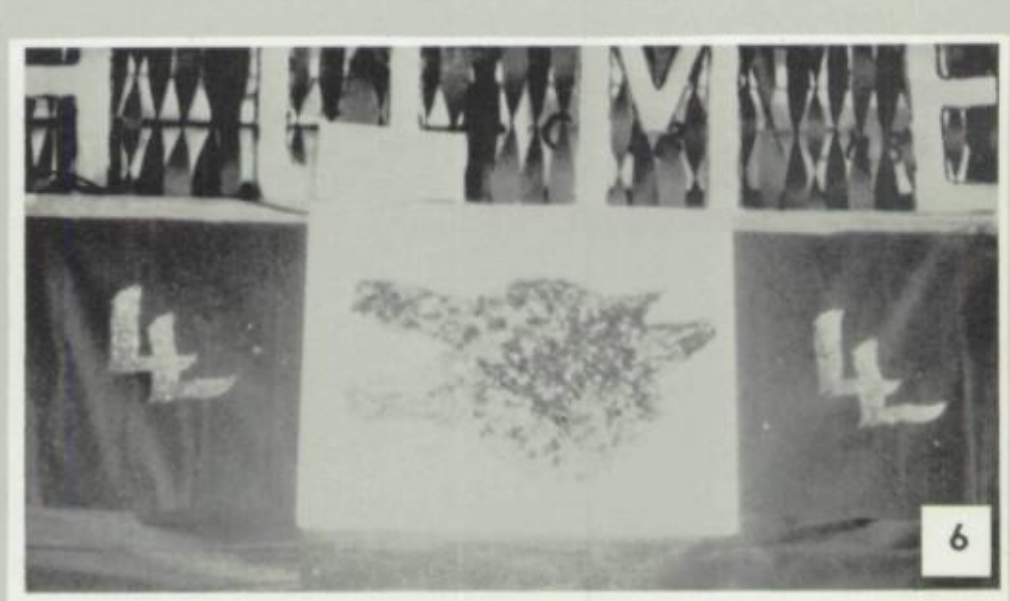
(1) Journalism Co-Editors Brenda Allen, Donna Anderson, Sandra Walker, and Donna Palmer, attended a workshop last summer in Lubbock on the Tech Campus. (2) The Journalism workshop sponsored a beauty contest with an entrant from each town. Sandra Walker was the second runner-up to Queen Jan Aiken, from Midland.

(3) The daily routine of classes and studying began for the Seniors with Principal Walter Reed addressing their first class meeting. (4) The Seniors receive their beautiful Class rings, which they wore proudly all year long, at the first of the year as an example of twelve long years of studying. (5) Students were given their schedules for the new year during their first homeroom. (6) In the midst of the activities and excitement of the new year, students buckle down to the grind of studies. (7) Band director, Bill Woods, issues uniforms to Kenny Pirtle and other members of the band to start the musical year, in hopes for another sweepstakes.

FOOTBALL GAMES BRING EXCITEMENT



(1) Senior cheerleader Gale Ballow decorates the goal post in preparation for Friday night's game. (2) The Lobos break through the huge sign erected by the cheerleaders. The sign, as well as Brownfield their opponent, was demolished. (3) A giant poster was put up in the hall by Lobo cheerleaders who worked very hard creating school spirit and enthusiasm. For this, we owe them a great deal of gratitude.



(4) A very proud group of the '63-'64 Lobos are assembled on the steps leading into the field house. (5) Football Queen Jan Berry is the center of attraction during the homecoming pep rally. Her attendants were sophomore Linda McMillan and Junior Jo Beth Parks. (6) Returning Ex's were greeted by Lucky Lobo's picture as they entered the gym for the homecoming pep rally! (7) Avid Lobo supporter, Lonnie Northam, joins in with the students in doing a yell. Lonnie has become a fixed part of athletics as well as most other activities at L. H. S.

(1) Enjoying their moment of royalty, King Ted Latham and Queen Retha Kirby reign over the 1963-64 Halloween Court. (2) Dewey Ellison and Becky Baird represented the senior class. (3) Mickey McDowell and George Keeling were runners-up. (4) Ted makes the crowning of the Coronation complete as he applies the finishing "touches" to Queen Retha. (5 and 6) The juniors raised money by having a hair-raising assembly. Featured, as two of the acts were Linda Stanley and Vicki Wright.

Seniors sing "Lobo Loyalty" following commencement exercises, May 26th 1964.

LOBO LOYALTY

Our Scarlet and Black
Is a symbol that honors
The spirit that reigns in our High
Of courage and sportsmanship
Shown by the Lobos,
Whose motto is, "We do or die."
Here's to our Alma Mater,
We're proud to defend
And Loyal through all we will be.
Our standards we'll glorify,
Victory is our Cry,

REFLECTIONS

Death leaves many things undone:
The goal not met, the prize not won;
The tale not told, the song not sung;
The dust not swept, the lamp not hung;
The thread not tied, the word not said;
These tasks remain when we are dead
Throughout eternity.

"Tyler to control; Tyler to control! Hit paydirt. Over-and-out," seems to be what Benny is saying as he crosses the Littlefield chalk mark for a six pointer.

Latham is caught in mid-air flight in his attempt to pick up a first down. Burton and McCann threw blocks trying to free the flying junior.

Picking up their first conference win, the Lobo eleven dumped the Perryton Rangers 12-0. The local fans thrilled to the sparkling performances of junior Ted Latham and sophomore Keith Yeager. These two gridmen were responsible for the tallies that sent the Rangers back to their "ranges."

Recognition was given the twelve honorary senior captains: Wayne Burton, Don Payne, Don Cummins, Kent McInroe, Ralph Solis, Jimmy Elder, Lynn O'Connor, Benny Tyler, Roger Smith, Jerry Rush, Ronald Prothro, and Doug McCann.

Coach Johnnie Hickman leads the Lobos in the "Lord's Prayer" shortly before they take the field against their foe.

The Lobos ended their District 1-AAA career with a win over the Hereford Whitefaces in the Northern City. The twelve graduating seniors saw action for the last time in high school play. With hard play and cool determination the Lobos kep the "Herd" from scoring and took a 14-0 victory.

TENNIS '64

Left - Troy Abell practices his service before entering in the singles competition in the district 1-AAA tournament.

Mr. Brashear, '64 tennis coach began this year as the varsity tennis coach for the first time. He spent many hours helping the team. For this, we thank him.

Sophomores Warren Borders and Bill Parker congratulate each other on winning berths in doubles. They competed in Canyon at the district tournament.

DISTRICT RUNNERS-UP

With a 7-3 district record, the Lobo hard-floor men took second place after running first almost all the way. The flashy Lobos registere one of their most impressive seasons with a 19-8 record in the '63-'64 season.

The Lobos lost eight of the varsity line-up with the graduation of seniors in May, '64.

Harrell shoots from the "key-hole" in the game again Brown-field. Levelland won 85 to 36.

Crump blocks out Perryton cager from under the board to increase the Lobos' chances of the re-bound. The Lobos won 74 to 52.

Waters, Crump, and Hines pre-pare to clear the board if the shot is off its mark in the game against Phillips. The Black-hawks won 67 to 65.

District Runner-up Medalist Joe Tubb, consults with Gary Hooks on how to play their tee shots.

Sophomore alternates, Terry Williams and Larry Rowe, watch tee shots before starting their practice round.

"Don't you think you'll be short if you hit that wedge for your tee shot?" inquires Jim Rowe (captain) as Don Fisher prepares to tee off on the first hole during a practice round.

STAFF COMPLETES ASSIGNMENT!

Throughout the past year, the members of the EL LOBO staff have tried to compile a book which will bring back memories of the past year.

We sincerely hope the 63-64 yearbook is everything you wished it to be.
